ENGLAND'S NEW EASTERN POLICY.
NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Hon. Thomas
THE Evening Express has returned to its estrich tactic. Being driven into a servicz. boot-licking Express promptly turned its coat and its tail, and yesterday's issue spoke of the successful ticket as a "most excellent" one, and tried hard to make it appear that there hadn't been "much of a shower nohow" in the Third Ward. In its labored attempt to curry favor with the defeated side, it was equally demagogical, equally contemptible. Not daring to leave its patron "polithin" to stand on his own sandy foundation, and which is steadily giving way under him, the organ insisted upon making an array of

The lady has a sweet, clear voice, sings and acts with great vin and animation, and made decidedly favorable impression. Mr. Pyke has a very good baritone voice, and played the part of "Pippo" with much good tasto. The low comedy parts were taken by Henry Louis and Charles J. Bishop the younger. Louis, as "Prince Lorenzo," compared very favorably with Harry Brown, who appeared in the same character with the Fay Templeton troupe here. Mr. Bishop is a good deal of an attist, and makes his points with quiet case and very telling effect. Bishop is improving all the time, but he will persist in making too many interpolations in his part. The other characters do not call for any especial mention.

have read the TIMES' abuse of Moore, some with delight, and others, equally as good Republicans, with disgust. In the meantime, the Chief Engineer of the Fire Department of Los Angeles, and candidate for Secretary of State on the Republican ticket, has been loading himself for bear, and the load is now ready to be discharged. It is stated on unquestioned authority that Col. Moore has the papers prepared, bringing suit against the TIMES for $50,000 for libel, and they will be filed to-morrow [Monday], Moore arriving in this city to-day. It is also rumored that Gen. W. H. L. Barnes and David McClure have been retained to represent Moore.

This committee proposes to assess mein as depicted above. At any rate this matter will be decided, and Walter has two chances, one at the polls, which he will lose, and the other in the courts before a jury of men who have known him from boyhood, and who will do him even-handed justice.

Mr. Moore returned from the north on Sunday. He has filed no libel suit as yet, but will be accommodated at the County Clerk's office whenever he goes there with his papers. If there is any the statement that Loss able to gay the most for it?

This committee proposes to assess each candidate just what they please; they then propose to spend the money salon, in front of the courthouse, to take a drink. Romero laid a $20 note on the bar and paid no attention to it. When he called for his change the note accept a nomination without he had disappeared and the barkeeper had not seen it. A party of tramps being in the position to which he may aspire, yet if he has not the ducate to fill the demands of the committee, he must keep in the background and let his more fortunate and wealthy competitors take the position.

Lest His Twenty.

Saturday evening José Romero and a party of friends went into J. Phillippi's salon, in front of the courthouse, to take a drink. Romero laid a $20 note on the bar and paid no attention to it. When he called for his change the hard disappeared and the barkeeper had not seen it. A party of tramps being in close proximity, they were suspected, and some constables of Ranney's court were called to arrest them. Upon being searched, one was found to have a $10 note and $50 in silver in his pocket.

This man and another tramp were locked up on suspicion.

Selling Liquor to Minors. John Schmidt was arrested Saturda on a warrant charging him with selling on a warrant charging him with selling liquor to minors. He keeps a saloon on the corner of First and Los Angeles streets. Some time since, a young boy was seen emerging from that place completely drunk, and he was afterwards removed from a vacant lot where he laid insensible, to the jail. At that time there was not enough evidence to warrant Schmidt's arrest, but in the present case there are tangible facts.

C. P. Brown, of this place, has constructed a machine that cuts slots in blind slats in quite a new fashion. Heretolore the long oval mortises in Venetian blind slats have been bored out. Brown's invention consists of a solid steel die, slightly concaved, which is dropped upon the slat by a sort of pile-driver arrangement. It cuts out the mortise at a blow, without leaving rough edges.

Bedbury, was crossing Fair Oaks avenue vesterday when she was run over by a horse and buggy driven by a young lidy.

The horse knocked her down and both wheels of the buggy ran scross her back,
but strange to say, she walked home without appearing to have suffered any injury.

As Mr. Large was driving down Oolorado street hill, this morning, his horse was frightened by the pricking of arboken shaft, and tried to make kindling

The Pair Oaks street-car line is finished, and the cars are expected up from Los Angeles early next week, when the road will be put in operation.

The City Conneil held a meeting, yesterday, at which a sidewalk ordinance was adopted. It provides that sidewalks within the following limits shall be put down before the expiration of thirty days, and that they shall have a uniform width of ten feet, except on Pair Oaks, north of Colorado, where they shall be eight feet wide; on the north side of Colorado, where they shall be eight feet wide; on the north side of Colorado to Union.
